

I contribute to the success of the class!

I come prepared.

- I have my materials (book, pencil, etc.)
- I have my homework finished accurately.

I show respect.

- I listen respectfully when another person is speaking.
- I raise my hand when I want to speak.
- I wait to be called on before I speak.
- I remain at my place.
- I respect the property of others.
- I cooperate with adults and other students.

I participate in class.

- I stay “on task” – reading, writing, drawing, etc.
- I respond to questions.
- I volunteer to answer questions and to ask questions.

I accept responsibility for my actions.

- I cooperate with teacher and classmates.
- I change my behavior if an adult corrects me.
- I clean up after myself.
- I apologize if I am uncooperative.

Three-Way Pledge of Cooperation

Student:

- I am capable of (1) coming prepared, (2) showing respect, (3) participating, and (4) accepting responsibility.
- I will contribute to the success of the class.
- If my teacher reports mis-behavior to my parent, I will (1) write a note of apology, (2) describe the mis-behavior, (3) tell how I will improve the behavior, and (4) have my parent sign the letter. (5) I will give the letter to my teacher when I arrive to the next class and (6) speak an apology.

Student Signature: _____

Parent:

- I will expect cooperative behavior of my child. I will hold my child accountable for the cooperative behavior that is defined above.
- I will sign or initial the COOPERATION REPORT SHEET weekly.
- I will discuss the behavior report. I will follow through with pre-decided consequences – both positive and negative.
- I will serve as a teacher aide if the teacher requires it because of my child’s behavior.

Parent Signature: _____

Teacher:

- I will encourage cooperative behavior.
- I will be clear in my expectations.
- I will try to overlook the first instance of misbehavior. If misbehavior continues (1) I will correct it with a signal, (2) then with a verbal reminder. (3) If a third correction is necessary I will report on the COOPERATION REPORT SHEET. (4) If mis-behavior continues, I will report the behavior to the Director. (5) If necessary for the common good, the student will be removed from the class and a phone call placed to you, the parent.
- If uncooperative behavior continues to affect the learning atmosphere I will require your attendance in the classroom as a teacher aide to monitor your child during class.
